Welcome and Invocation

Pastor Jonathan Dinger

Prayer of Confession

Lord God, we confess today that it is easy for us to be distracted from you and your perfect will for us. We can obscure your grace with busy work. We can forget that your love is undeserved. We can add steps and rituals to your complete work. We can become apathetic and love the world more than you. Forgive us. Lift our eyes to be fixed on You alone, Lord Jesus -- our need; your grace; our only hope. Amen

Scripture Readings

First Reading:

Revelation 14:6-7

⁶Then I saw another angel flying directly overhead, with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on earth, to every nation and tribe and language and people. ⁷And he said with a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water."

Epistle Reading:

Romans 3:19-24

¹⁹Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. ²⁰For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin.

²¹But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— ²²the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: ²³for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, ²⁴and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,

Gospel Reading:

John 8:31-36

³¹So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, “If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, ³²and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.” ³³They answered him, “We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, ‘You will become free’?”

³⁴Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. ³⁵The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. ³⁶So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.”

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

Children's Church

Kids, ages 4-10 may go to Children's Church at this time.

Jesus said to His disciples: "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you!" Luke 22:15

As Lutheran Christians we confess that Christ's Body and Blood are truly and physically present in the bread and wine of Holy Communion for the forgiveness of sins. This meal is of benefit to those who acknowledge their sinful condition and have placed their trust in Christ alone for salvation.

Where Christ's true body and blood are present, so also is the forgiveness of sins and eternal life. The ancient practice of the Church is that baptized and formally instructed Christians who share in this teaching are welcome to join in this meal that our Lord offers. (As you come to the Lord's table, ushers will invite you to come forward. Please fill in the rail beginning at the center, and kneel if you are able. If you wish to receive, extend your hand for the bread. You may then receive the wine, either by individual or common cup. White grape juice is available in the center of each tray. Those not baptized or instructed in the biblical teaching of Holy Communion which recognizes the physical presence of Christ's body and blood within the bread and wine are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, if desired. Simply cross your arms to receive the blessing. Please do not wait to be dismissed from the rail. Those wishing to remain at the rail to pray are welcome to do so; others may return to their seats. If you would like to receive communion, and are unable to come forward to the rail, please let the usher know, so that the communion servers can serve you at your seat.)

"Come, for all has been made ready!"

NEED TECH HELP??

This Sunday, bring your tech questions to Grace Connect in the gym at 10:00AM

Apps? E-mail? Facetime? Live stream links? Need help unsubscribing from something?

We will do our best to guide you! AND BONUS!
We will get to hear some ministry wins from Camp Perkins!

What is Grace Connect?

A time for Guest Speakers, Ministries of GLC, and more to share with you what they are up to in our community.

Who is it for?

You! Your friends! Your family!

Members who love Grace and want to support these ministries, pray for them, learn about them, and be able to speak about them well.

Guests and new-to-Grace friends who are curious about GLC and the ministries.

Kids! We have time for kids to run & play and a children's message with activities they can be involved in that make a difference.

GRACE CONNECT

If I go am I committing to volunteer?

No. Grace Connect is a time for you to cheer for ministries and learn so that when God puts someone in your path who may be blessed by Grace through one of our ministries, you will be equipped to share well. If you wish to partner with a GLC ministry this is a great place to start.

SCHOOL

We are excited to kick off a new way to enjoy time together as a Grace Lutheran School community while supporting our school—Monday Meet Ups! About once a month, we'll partner with a local restaurant for a special fellowship fundraiser. Grace families and friends are invited to stop by, enjoy a meal, and connect with others from our school community. Best of all, a percentage of the day's proceeds will come back to Grace Lutheran School!
